6. Port Phillip Bay Pilot Boat Experience for 2 People

Since 1839, the Port Phillip Sea Pilots have stood as guardians of the bay — a brotherhood of mariners entrusted with guiding the world's great ships through the treacherous Rip and into safe harbour. Their story began on the sands of Queenscliff, where the first pilots camped on the beach and rowed out in 30-foot whaleboats, often crewed by convicts, to meet incoming vessels.

Today, you are invited to step into that living history.

The Experience

Climb aboard a Port Phillip Bay Pilot Boat for an extraordinary journey alongside the modern descendants of those early pioneers — the only mariners qualified to navigate these waters.

Feel the salt air whip past as the high-speed pilot boat surges through the “Rip” towards towering ships, just as it has for generations. Watch the pilots make their daring transfer and climb the rope ladder up these huge vessels, taking command to guide them safely through the notorious Port Phillip Heads — a ritual unchanged in spirit for nearly two centuries.

It is not just a ride. It is a front-row seat to a tradition older than the state of Victoria itself.

The Accommodation

After your ocean-edge adventure, retreat to your 2-Bedroom Villa for a family escape for up to five people for 2-nights at BIG4 Ingenia Holidays Queenscliff Beacon — a modern sanctuary just moments from the historic pilot station where this story first began.

A rare blend of heritage, adventure, and coastal calm — a once-in-a-lifetime experience that lets you touch a living piece of Australia's maritime soul.

16. 'Heat Waves' (50cm x 50cm)

- Professionally framed in beech

Acrylic on canvas - By Anna Walsh

About the piece:

"Heat Waves" depicts a rambling flowering jasmine amongst foliage. Layering of greens, browns, yellows and pinks creates a warmth within this piece.

This work looks to celebrate the small, underappreciated corners of the garden sometimes forgotten but still thriving in all conditions. This work encourages the viewer to stop and appreciate.

Bio: Anna Walsh is an emerging Australian artist and textile designer working from her home studio on the lands of the Yorta Yorta people in Moama, NSW.

Anna's artistic style can be described as a harmonious blend of traditional techniques and contemporary aesthetics. Choosing to move between detailed florals and free flowing abstracts, her work showcases detailed, hand-rendered designs that draw inspiration from the Australian landscape, particularly its unique flora.

The use of warm, earthy tones reflects the natural environment, while the intricate patterns and textures highlight Anna's background in textile design. This combination results in pieces that are both nostalgic and modern, offering viewers a fresh perspective on familiar natural elements.

17. 'All I Can Think About' (80cm x 80cm) - framed in sealed pine
Acrylic on canvas - By Cindy-Lee Pedrana

About the piece:

"All I can think about" is an impressionist sunset over the Murray River, washed in pastel purple, peaches, blues, and deep evening greens.

The softened forms and silhouetted treeline reflect a moment held more in feeling than in time. The work invites calm and recognition, a quiet sense of having been there before.

Bio: Cindy-Lee Pedrana is an artist based in the Echuca-Moama region, where both her life and art are closely intertwined with the Murray River.

Originally from Newcastle, NSW, she holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts from the University of Newcastle and balances life as a local primary school teacher, wife, and mother alongside her art practice.

Her landscapes explore the relationship between memory and place, inviting viewers to experience a sense of peace and recognition.

Exhibiting locally for the past three years with Murray River Art and at The Foundry Art Space, Cindy-Lee's distinctive pointillist technique and love for our riverside community has shaped her practice, providing constant inspiration through changing light and colour.

18. The Golden Coffee Cup - The Most Coveted Cup in Town

Only one person will walk away with this. One! And for the next 365 days, that person will enjoy a level of caffeinated privilege the rest of us can only dream about.

The Golden Coffee Cup grants its winner one free coffee every single day for an entire year at Latte Lane — a $2,100 valued stash of premium, personality-restoring fuel.

This isn't just a prize. It's a status symbol. A flex. A daily reminder that you outbid, outplayed, and out-caffeinated everyone else in the room.

Each cup unlocks your signature superpowers:

- the ability to function before speaking
- the patience to deal with morning people
- the transformation from “danger zone” to “delightful”

And let's be honest — the community will be safer for it.

Roll through Latte Lane each day like the chosen one. Flash your Golden Coffee Cup rights. Sip with the confidence of someone who won the most important battle of the night.

A prize this exclusive doesn't just improve your mornings — it proves you're unstoppable.

Pen and watercolour paper - Created by local artist Leanne Cuffe

My artworks connect the form of the circle with a narrative that responds to circumstance.

Through disability, the making of work considers the physicality of 'how to make' as the crucial factor of 'what to make'. The circle represents an action, an action of least resistance - repetitious and habitual. While not consciously seeking out the circle, I am attracted to the curve and its form, and it infiltrates much of my work. The inclusion of the circle in my works has become a natural and instinctive process within my practice.

Each life-like Magnolia arrangement is expertly handcrafted and set in gel, creating the appearance of water. The petals are coated with a special natural formula, giving them a true-to-life touch and appearance.

Every arrangement is made by hand at every step. The unique gel formula is carefully poured, and each flower stem is trimmed to size and arranged by one of Cote Noire's skilled floral designers. The bouquet is then individually perfumed, thoroughly checked, and hand boxed.

Cote Noire arrangements are true works of art, showcasing exceptional craftsmanship and attention to detail, designed for customers to enjoy in their homes.

The Magnolia Bouquet is accompanied by two 10ml bottles of scented perfume, allowing the scent to be refreshed and enhanced by spraying directly onto the flowers.

The bouquet is beautifully packaged in a round Cote Noire box, finished with a ribbon.

Enclosed Fragrances:

1 x 10ml Charente Rose: A natural rose with top notes of rose petal, middle notes of rose leaf and base notes of white musk

1 x 10ml White Magnolia

Measurements:

23cm round x 19.5 cm height
